THE ALLEGED FRAUD ON THE GOVERNMENT .-The Origin of the Report.—A Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says: "The inquiry into the alleged fraud practised by Dr. Gardiner upon the Mexican Commission has been turned over to Mr. Fendall, District Attorney for this District. Dr. Charles W. Davis, secretary of the late board, Benjamin E. Green, Isaac D. Marks, A. S. Parrott, Mr. Porte, and Senor Cuesta, of the Mexican Legation, have been summoned before the grand jury now sitting, and the three first-named gendemen were examined to-day. Mr. Parrott is now at Saratoga, but has been written for. He was formerly consul at Mazatlin.

"The facts developed to-day are, that Mr. Porte, who is now in New York, but was formerly a merchant at Puebla, Mexico—the same gentleman who had the tobacco dispute with ex-Secretary Clayton—stated to Parrott that Gardiner had told him just previous to his sail-ing, that his claim was a fraudulent one, and had been sustained with forged papers got up in Mexico, and that as parties in Washington had got the lion's share out of it, he was deter-mined they should share the blame also. Soon as Porte told this, Mr. Cuesta wrote to the President informing him of it, and demanding

"The Government as yet possesses no evidence beyond the alleged assertion of Gardiner, that a fraud has been committed. It appears that Senor Cuesta, interpreter to the Mexican Prefect who certified to the genuineness of the signatures of Gardiner's witnesses, and who consequently acted an important part in getting the testimony up, held a draft on Gardiner for twenty-eight thousand dollars, to be presented in case the claim was allowed. It was accordingly presented, and Gardiner at once paid it by a draft purchased from Chubb & Schenck. It appears that Gardiner has left nearly all his money here in bank, taking with him but ten thousand dollars. This circumstance, and the improbability of his having made such a disclosure as Porte alleges, throws more than a doubt upon the whole story. As yet the whole charge stands upon the veracity of Mr. Porte."

A sure Kemedy—a Preventive—a Cure:

THE following letter is from Mr. Woodward, of St. Louis,

Mr. Woodward is a resident of St. Louis, a gentleman of high respectability, and during the prevalence of the can be relied on with the utmost confidence.

PERRY DAVIS & SONS.

J. N. Harris, esq.—Dear Sir: You will recollect when I saw you in New London, in January last, my expressing to you my most sanguine expectations that Davis's Pain Killer would have a tremendous sale in the West this season, and my anticipations have been more than real-ized, and the testimony of thousands who have used it has been, that they would not be willing to go to bed at has been, that they would not be willing to go to bed at night without it in the house.

On the appearance of the cholera in this city, such was the confidence in the Pain Killer as a remedy, that many who purchased it remarked to me that they had no fears or dread of the cholera as long as they had the Pain Killer by them, and hundreds took it daily as a preventive, for no person can have a derangement of the bowels or diarrheea if they use this medicine daily. This was the security and confidence of hundreds acquainted with it, and when their friends were attacked with the cholera, they would administer this remedy in large quantities intervoul administer this remedy in large quantities interwould administer this remedy in large quantities inter-nally, and also externally, by bathing and rubbing them with it; and in every case where it has been taken in any of the first stages of this disease it has proved success-ful. I consider it an infallible remedy. I have not heard of an individual in any family who used the Pain Killer when attacked, but speedily recovered.

Captain Broadwell, of the steamer Atlantic, a New Or leans packet, informed me that, en one of his trips up the river to this city, there were upward of seventy cases of cholera on board, and the Pain Killer was used with com-cholera on board, and the Pain Killer was used with com-plete and triumphant success.

The Clerk informed me that he had administered it to persons when cold and in the cramps, and it gave imme-diate relief; but still it should be given quickly, for when the discharge of "rice water" has begun, the hope of life has fled. Should this disease make its appearance among you, as in all probability it will, be not alarmed; you and all others there have the remedy, and I am confident if the Pain Killer is used, not a death by cholera will occur in your city.

in your city.

If the cholera comes among you watch its progress and the remedy use, and, mark my words, the family who uses the Pain Killer daily will have no diarrhea, no disarrangement of the bowels, and consequently no cholera. If those who are attacked will use the Pain Killer early and thoroughly, they will be saved. This has been the experience of hundreds in this city during the ravages of this dreadful disease. LEVERETT'S LATIN LEXICON,

In Latin the Magnum Totius Latinitatis Lexicon at Facciolati and Forcellini, and the German works of Scheller and Lucnemann, embracing, also, the classical distinctions of words, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexiwords, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexicon.

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany, and translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word without a figure is fully classical and Ciceronian; with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c., degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The Etymological Index, also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues, it was found that the value and importance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in Riddle's Freund. The extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the country, and the preference which has been universally given to it over all similar works, render its recommendation superfluous; but attention to this new edition is respectfully invited, as being still more worthy than its predecessors of the distinguished favor which the work has hitherto received.

of Geology, Massachusetts. Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848. Mr. Robert Sears-Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much in-terest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine Blustrations, must have cost you to obtain so many fine Hiustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long the knessing trougles to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant,

EDWARD HITCHCOCK.
